

WELSH GOVERNMENT PRIVACY NOTICE FOR THE STATUTORY PUPIL DATA COLLECTIONS

In accordance with Data Protection Act 2018 and UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) ('the data protection legislation'), this notice sets out what the Welsh Government does with your personal and education related data that it receives from schools and/or local authorities about children and young people.

The information in this notice will remain under review to incorporate any further changes. If we change the way, we process and/or use your data this privacy notice will reflect those changes. The updated version will be available on the website. The information should contribute to wider notices issued by the schools, early years providers and local authorities.

This privacy notice last updated in June 2022.

1. Background

The Welsh Government receives, via a secure online data transfer portal, personal data on children and young people directly from schools, early years providers and local authorities as part of statutory data collections also known as the following:

- Post-16 data collection (pupils in National Curriculum Year 12 and above)
- Pupil Level Annual School Census (PLASC)
- Educated Otherwise Than At School (EOTAS) pupil level data collection
- National Data Collection (NDC)
- Attendance data collection (Primary and Secondary)

In addition to these, the Welsh Government also receives data on results of approved external qualifications (e.g. GCSE and A Level awards) from Awarding Bodies (e.g. WJEC).

On receipt of the personal data, the Welsh Government becomes the data controller.

2. What data does the Welsh Government receive?

Personal and special category data collected about children and young people as part of statutory data collections includes, but is not limited to, those listed in the following table. For a list of data items collected as part of the statutory school data collections, please see Annex 1.

- ✓ Personal data such as Unique Number, First Name, Middle Name, Surname, Postcode, Date of Birth, Gender, National Identity, Language, Free School Meal Eligibility, School Number, School Year Group
- ✓ Special Category data such as ethnicity and information on any additional learning needs
- ✓ Data on results from national curriculum assessments and approved qualifications (ie public examinations)
- ✓ Data from the school about your education record
- ✓ Data on attendance, to include sessions attended and reasons for absence

3. What is the lawful basis for processing your data?

The Welsh Government relies on the legal basis, as set in The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (Wales) Regulations 2007, in receiving the data.

The Welsh Government relies on the lawful basis for processing data received in the statutory data collection exercises under Article 6(1)(e) of GDPR; the data is processed in line with our public task and in the official authority vested in us to undertake the core role and functions of the Welsh Government. Some of the data the Welsh Government receives classed as 'special category data' (in this case ethnicity and additional learning needs). For this, the Welsh Government relies on Article 9(2)(g) – the data is processed for purposes of substantial public interest in line with regulatory requirements.

4. What does the Welsh Government do with your data?

In the Welsh Government's remit as the data controller, the data received is used for the below purposes. These purposes are necessary to enable the Welsh Government to carry out its public task and in the exercise of its official authority.

Statutory Function purposes:

- ✓ For school performance purposes, identifiable data will be shared back with the school and/or local authority
- ✓ For matching and/or linking of datasets from statutory data collections, using identifiable data, in order to enable statistical analysis to inform wider education and social policies

Statistical analysis and research purposes (carried out in a way that ensures individual children and young people cannot be identified):

- ✓ To monitor the performance and assess the quality of our education policies and services so that they can be improved
- ✓ To help monitor and target funding effectively
- ✓ For statistical analysis and research purposes which will help to inform, influence and improve education policy for people in Wales
- ✓ To link with other datasets, including non-educational data sets, in order to inform wider education and social policies

Publication purposes (carried out in a way that ensures individual children and young people cannot be identified):

- ✓ For publication purposes, which includes a range of statistical outputs on the Welsh Government website. A full list of statistical publications can be viewed at <https://gov.wales/statistics-and-research>
- ✓ School information published on the My Local School website

WELSH GOVERNMENT PRIVACY NOTICE FOR THE STATUTORY PUPIL DATA COLLECTIONS

- ✓ For research purposes wider than education, the Welsh Government will use techniques that ensure the data are anonymised before any research takes place

5. Who does the Welsh Government share your information with?

Information held by the Welsh Government about Children and Young People will be shared, upon request and where there is specific purpose, with organisations for example those linked to education and training, where specified in Regulations made under section 537A of the Education Act 1996.

Persons or organisations with whom the Welsh Government will share your personal information are as follows. Please see Annex 2 for details on who and why we share your data.

- ✓ The Local Authority that maintains the school at which you are or were registered
- ✓ The Office of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education and Training in Wales (Estyn)
- ✓ Careers Wales
- ✓ Qualifications Wales
- ✓ Any qualification awarding body in Wales recognised by Qualifications Wales
- ✓ The Office for National Statistics
- ✓ The Education and Skills Funding Agency
- ✓ The UK Government's Department for Education
- ✓ The Universities and Colleges Admissions Service (UCAS)
- ✓ Any persons conducting research into the educational achievements of pupils and who require individual pupil information for that purpose
- ✓ Information collators which, for the purposes of or in connection with the functions of the Welsh Ministers relating to education, are responsible for collating or checking information relating to pupils

The Welsh Government will put in place a formal data sharing agreement whenever your data shared with a third party. The Welsh Government will only share your data for a specific purpose and for a limited time. Part of the agreements will be that the third party will be required to sign a confidentiality agreement in relation to your data, to show that they operate satisfactory information security procedures, that they will only use your information in prescribed ways and that they will destroy their copies of your data when the time-limited agreement expires. Any analysis produced must follow the Welsh Government's disclosure rules to ensure that individuals are not identifiable. For research purposes wider than education, the Welsh Government will use techniques to anonymise the data before any research takes place.

WELSH GOVERNMENT PRIVACY NOTICE FOR THE STATUTORY PUPIL DATA COLLECTIONS

6. How long will we keep your data?

Data Sets	Data Retention Period	Data uses
Statutory School Data Collections	Your data will be kept until you are 25 years old after which your data will be anonymised	This enables the Welsh Government to analyse your data along with that of other pupils and create reports. These reports will be used to help inform, influence and improve education policy decisions, monitor performance of the education service as a whole and/or to forecast future funding requirements
	Once your data is anonymised it will be in line with best practice and kept for a longer period	This is for statistical analysis and research purposes only

7. Your rights under the GDPR

You have the right to:

- ✓ have access to the personal data that the Welsh Government is processing about you
- ✓ require the Welsh Government to rectify inaccuracies in that data
- ✓ in some circumstances, object to processing on grounds relating to your particular situation
- ✓ in some circumstances, restrict processing
- ✓ lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office who is the independent regulator for data protection.

For further information about the data which the Welsh Government holds, and its use, or if you wish to exercise your rights under the data protection legislation, please contact the Welsh Government's School Information and Improvement Branch in the first instance and/or the Data Protection Officer. Organisation	Purpose
Office for National Statistics (ONS)	Pupil data is provided to ONS in accordance with ONS' statutory functions laid out in the Statistics and Registration Service Act 2007 (SRSA) and Census Act 1920 for the production of statistics and statistical research. ONS publish aggregate statistics related to the economy, population and society at UK, Wales, and local levels. These statistics will be published in a manner that ensures it is not possible to identify individuals. The ONS will also use the data to undertake research, or to make de-identified data available to approved researchers (as defined in the Digital Economy Act), through their secure research environment. These research projects may involve linking data to other data sources to help understand the interaction between the education system and other issues such as health, well-being or the economy. Again the research will be undertaken in a manner that includes checks being carried out to make sure that identities are not revealed by the results of the analysis.
Qualifications Wales	Pupil level data used to undertake analysis of learner numbers at qualification and sector levels, to help inform sector reviews of qualifications. https://www.qualificationswales.org/english/
Careers Wales	To provide support to specific groups of individuals who are at a high risk of becoming disengaged from education, employment and training. To achieve this, pupil level data used to match/link to existing active Careers Wales client records in order to determine the pupil's destination for producing statistics only. Details of how Careers Wales will use your information, please refer to Careers Wales website http://www.careerswales.com/
Local Authorities	Pupil level data is analysed and used by local authorities.
Estyn	Pupil level data is analysed and used by Estyn inspectors as part of their inspections of learning undertaken in schools. https://www.estyn.gov.wales/language
UK Government - Department for Education	Pupil level data used to link individual pupil records to employment, earnings and benefits records held by the Department for Work and Pensions, in order to identify and analyse the destinations of learners into further learning and/or employment, once they have left learning. https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/department-for-work-pensions/about/personal-information-charter.
